BENTON, MISSOURI, DECEMBER, 12, 1896.

NO. 44

December 15! 1896! December 15!

JUST IN THE NICK O' TIME

For those who give Christmas Presents of Practical Value Comes the Great Going-Out-of-Business Sale of FLENTGE & HEINBERG.

Mr. Flentge, having been elected Collector of Cape Girardeau county, will retire from business in order to be able to take charge and attend to the duties of said office, and our entire stock will be closed out so that we may retire from business. This is no scheme to catch the people, but an actual fact, and it stands everyone in hand to come early and get their share of the bargains, as everything will be hustled out as fast as possible—and the time for closing is short. It is impossible to quote prices on everything, but we will give you a few prices to give you an idea of how they run.

Remember the Date of Commencing—December 15, 1896.

FLENTGE & HEINBERG, Cape Girardeau, Mo. (Old Grange Stand).

Our Advertisers.	FROM COMMERCE.	FROM NEW HAMBURG.	FROM DIEHLSTADT.	FROM ORAN.	PROMISED PROSPERITY.
This week the Newsboy's space is principally taken up by business men who are anxious to let you know what they have to offer. Above we call your attention to the announcement of FLENTGE & HEINBERG. Who are offering wonderful bargains. This firm is well known to our people as one of the most reliable in the Southeast. Mr. Flentge, having been elected collector for Cape Girardeau county, will retire from business so as to give his entire time to his office, and the firm has inaugurated a going-out-of-business sale at which all goods will go at a sacrifice. Their goods are all new, fresh and up to date. Next comes BAUDENDISTEL & CO., The Kelson merchants. This firm has been doing a satisfactory business for some time, and they do not hesitate to give the public their prices in plain figures. They sell for cash and do business on a close margin. F. WIGDOR, AT ORAN, Also has something to say to Newsboy readers. He carries a nice line of dry goods, gents' furnishings, boots shoes, hats, notions, etc., and suggests that you make Christmas presents of practical value during these hard times. AL CHENUE, THE JEWELER, Wishes to remind you that he has a nice line of Christmas presents, and that he can supply your wants in the jewelry line equally as well as the houses of the larger cities. THE CHICAGO STORE, Which makes a specialty of gents' furnishings, shoes and notions, also has a word to say. If you get hungry while trading you can satisfy your appetite at HOTEL SCOTT. AROUND ABOUT. The Boston grocery store, at the Cape, will tempt your appetite if you see their show windows loaded down with the finest fruits, nuts and candies ever in Cape Girardeau. Large and well assorted stock to select from. Quality of goods, A. No. 1. AND PRICES SO LOW as will surprise you. They will please you and save you money. Corner Main Street and Broadway, opposite the postoffice. "THE BOSTON." Our advertisers have kept us so busy that we just haven't had time to find out just what is going on. Rube Matthews of Oran was here Sunday. John Ashley of Oran, was here Monday. D. H. Harper was here Saturday.	So says "You are wanted at the Cape." So says J. P. Schwepker, proprietor of "The Boston" grocery store, opposite the post-office. Gold and silver bricks, sound money and 18 to 1, pennies and coins taken in exchange for the best assortment of holiday eatables in the town. Oranges, apples, bananas, grapes, nuts of all kinds, candies by the barrel, pail, pound or penny. Don't fail to call at "THE BOSTON." The ladies gave an oyster supper at Mrs. C. Anderson's, Tuesday night for the benefit of the church. Miss Al Stott, one of Charleston's most fascinating young ladies, spent the first of the week with Miss Bertie Moore. Luke Russell and John Goodin attended our oyster supper. J. H. Crowder departed for Hot Springs, Ark. Monday, where he will spend a few weeks for his health. J. P. Ramey, of Richwoods, is in town this week. Jess Bowman, who took a boat load of eastern ware down the river early in the fall, returned Saturday. The Misses Roberta and Zona Beagle, of Charleston, are the guests of Miss Bertie Moore this week. Wm. Ross and Wm. Canham went to St. Louis Saturday. A. L. Mills, has started another grocery store in the Ruff building. This makes 30 business houses and offices in town. RUBE. Another New Railroad. Last Saturday some fellow claiming to represent an eastern syndicate started out from Cape Girardeau overland, to make a preliminary survey of a new railroad to run from Cape Girardeau to Red River, in Arkansas, and there connect with a New Orleans line. The man left Benton Sunday morning on his route southward and had with him letters to prominent parties in Morley, Sikeston, Gayoso, etc. The same scheme is being worked all over the State. Proposed railroads are springing up everywhere. The railroad corporations see the handwriting on the wall. They know that the next Missouri legislature will handle them without glove. Consequently they are making these bluffs at building roads and when the question of a reduction of rates comes up their lobby will approach our representative with, "Why, don't you know we have made a preliminary survey through your county to build a railroad, and if you vote for a reduction of rates, and rates are lowered, we can't afford to build it?" But it won't work this time.	Do you want clothing that is the newest, and nobbiest—clothing that will give character and prestige to your outfit, to St. Louis last Saturday, plaid and Scotch weaves. When at the Cape call in to see us. W. H. BORSACK, No. 1, Main street, Cape Girardeau. The Hamburg-Benton road is being put in fine condition. Overseer Peter Bosen understands the art of getting roads in fine shape, and one that is lasting. Leo Gosche was at the Cape Friday, buying supplies for his restaurant. John P. Westrich and Joseph Scherer, went to Commerce Wednesday. Uncle Mike Gosche was at Oran, Sunday, and Mrs. Joe. Geisner and children were over to see the Gosche family at this place. Jacob Dietrich purchased a corner lot of John Orth. John Stuppe, of near Diehlstadt, sojourned a few days with Chas. Gojuran at this place. Prof. Hicks says we are going to have the coldest winter for years. We have a big stock of overcoats—a fine all wool-cloth, $4; all wool ulster, $5. Blue, black and tan beavers and cures at $7 to $8. W. H. BORSACK, No. 1, Main street, Cape Girardeau. Louis Bucher and son, Lawrence, were at Commerce Monday hauling goods for A. W. Dierberger. Pension Agent Coater, of the Cape was over to see how many ex-soldiers were alive in this settlement. Tramps are circulating more numerous in this section than ever before. Guess they were sent here by Mark Hanna to prospect for gold. Several parties were out hunting and fishing. They all returned safely, but left the fisherries somewhere hidden in a hollow sycamore. Jacob.	Henry Misfeldt, M. L. Oster and Judge C. N. Welch, shipped three car loads of hogs, and two car loads of cattle, to St. Louis last Saturday. Messrs Oster and Misfeldt went in charge. Ost. Hunt, who has been lying at the Cape for a long time, broke his leg, was removed to the home of his father-in-law, J. M. Moran. Irvin A. Wilson, an old resident of Scott county died here, Friday night of lung complaint. Miss Anna Jellen, of DeSoto, came down to visit her sister, Mrs. Peter Dierberger. She will spend the winter here. Dr. and Mrs. Richmond, went to Delta, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Richmond's mother. J. F. Ashley, has purchased three lots of Wm. Stubbfield, Jr., on which he will build a new residence in the near future. Some sportsmen from DeSoto came down on a special car, and stopped here several days hunting. One of the gentlemen was Sept. Hardy's son. A great many farmers of Benton county, and from around Hamburg, are bringing their wheat to Oran. Whitmore Dodge, of Commerce, was here Friday, circulating a petition for Deputy Revenue Collector. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gangle of near Benton were here on business Friday. Ed. Henderson, of Benton, was here on official business Friday. A meeting took place at the school house, Friday night, for the purpose of organizing a literary society, but we did not hear the results. Leo Stahr, of New Hamburg was here Monday, on business. H. C. Allison, contemplates starting a branch grocery store at Caney Station, about the 1st of January. Thos. N. Myers, a highly respected citizen, died at his residence one mile north of Oran, Dec. 6, 1896. The funeral took place Monday at one o'clock. He was buried at the Fried cemetery. Uncle Tom, as he was familiarly called had a host of friends. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. When you start out on a shopping expedition, drop in at the Silver Dollar Store, Oran, and see what they have. You will find it to your profit. Chris. Jordan and family of Delta, visited H. C. Allison Saturday. Ben Lyons is putting a new roof on the Clomson house. Rumor says that Matthews, Stubbfield & Co., will open a large branch store at White Water. John Thompson of Bleda, lost his house, and nearly all the contents, by fire, one day last week.	Along about this time in the year we hear a great deal about Santa Claus. To see the Christmas trix at the Silver Dollar Store, Oran, one would think that Santa was close at hand. Ost. Hunt, who has been lying at the Cape for a long time, broke his leg, was removed to the home of his father-in-law, J. M. Moran. Irvin A. Wednesday night Holsinger's store and Ben Lyons' store were burglarized. The outer door of Holsinger's safe was blown off, but the burglars failed to get the inner door—the door which enclosed the cash—open. Consequently they got no money from the safe. The cash register was pulled open and about $1.00 in small change taken. Nothing else is missing, and the damage to the safe and cash register is the only loss. The burglars entered by prying open the front door. At the saloon some whiskey and about $1.50 in small change was missing. The safe and cash register were open, consequently they were not damaged. A cigar box containing $7.20 in nickels, was in the bottom part of the safe. This was found the next morning, with none of the cash missing. Two empty pockets—one with Mr. Henderson's name on the inside—were taken. One book contained a marked 20-cent piece. The coin was found on the floor. Here, too, the burglars entered through the front door. Jas. Walker and Mrs. Jas. McKinley heard the explosion shortly after midnight. Mr. Walker says he got up and went to the window, but everything was so quiet that he returned to bed. The tools were taken from the blacksmith shop and Mr. Stone the blacksmith, says that no one could have found the necessary tools unless familiar with the place. It is believed that the parties who committed the robbery were no strangers to the place. Uncle Tom Myers Passes Away. Thos. N. Myers, Sr., died at his residence, near Oran, last Sunday, aged 61 years, 2 months and 5 days. He was laid to rest at the Fried cemetery the following day at 1 o'clock. Possibly there is not another man in Scott county whose death would have caused such profound sorrow throughout the county. The deceased was an old land mark. He was born in Cape Girardeau county, October 1, 1835, and came to Scott county with his parents when only two years old. He has resided here ever since. His memory was bright and it was only a great pleasure to get around Uncle Tom and hear him tell of the earlier days of Scott county. He was one of those peculiar men who seemed to have no enemies, yet he was fearless in expressing his opinion on matters of public concern. To Test Tons. N. Myers and Bertie Morrison were united in matrimony by the late Ben F. Hunter, then a justice of the peace of Richland township. Two children—ten sons and two daughters—were born to the union, the wife and five sons—Lynn, Reese, Joe, Thomas and Elmer—surviving him. Our brother—Beach Myers, aged 72—and two sisters—Mrs. Wm. Stubbfield, Sr., of Richwoods, aged 67, and Mrs. Louisa Hamilton, of California, aged 65 also survive him.
FROM SIKESTON. Monday of last week at about 1:15 p.m. we felt quite a severe earthquake shock. It shook up the people rather lively. About twenty or thirty of our most prominent ladies and gentlemen, have recently organized a Minstrel club or the Time Kite club, and they will entertain their friends in the opera house, on the night of Dec. 24th with a great variety of amusements, ending with an old fashioned cake walk. A good time is guaranteed and all are cordially invited to attend. On the night of Dec. 25 unless date is changed the K. K. K.'s will present their program at the same place. On a date not yet known Miss Anna Moore and her vocal class will present the new opera "Kings Heart," written by Miss Moore. From the above, barring failures, we will be fairly supplied with amusements during the holidays. Dr. Wright, a popular dentist formerly of Oran, is in our town, and is occupying the Randall house, and his office is over the Sikeston Bank, where he is prepared to do all kinds of dentil work on short notice. Sunday night Mrs. Joseph Morris of near this place presented her husband with triplets, all boys. They and the mother are doing nicely at this writing. Frank Shanks took several cars of fine hogs to St. Louis, Monday. Frank will remain there a few days attending to some business for the new firm. The Ladies Aid Society, is contemplating giving an oyster supper Tuesday evening Dec. 23rd at the opera house. All are cordially invited to come. Emory, Shikas & Co., will occupy their new grocery department this week. The merchants are beginning to get in their Christmas stock of goods, through perhaps not so large as formerly, yet sufficient goods, substantial and of great variety. —Frank Bittell, of Kenna, was a caller at the Newsboy office, Wednesday.
